

PRESS RELEASE

Media Contact: Adele Bernabei

March 31, 2008, Chicago – River North Search today announced the launch of its global operations. The firm will serve domestic and international clients who are seeking to fill positions at the mid-management and professional levels. “We are pleased to offer such a high-touch solution to those clients who are interested in strategically developing their mid-management staff,” commented Mary Kier, President of River North.

River North is comprised of search professionals who excel in recruiting at the mid-management level, and who bring expertise in key markets and sectors around the globe. The firm also offers expertise to address Diversity initiatives and similar strategic performance hiring programs. Additional services offered include compensation surveys, advertising placement and response management, and resume screening.

About River North Search

River North is a recruiting and staffing organization that operates at middle-management and professional levels. We specialize in recruiting permanent professionals with the same high-touch service and consultative approach typically found only in executive-level engagements. To learn more about our capabilities, please visit www.rivernorthsearch.com.